

Sinclair Stations use public airwaves free of charge, and are required by law to serve the public interest. One-sided programs like "Stolen Honor" do not serve the public interest & are harmful to democracy. Why is the FCC doing nothing to stop this misuse of the airwaves?